

Chelsea Goes Potty!

Chelsea was a stubborn little girl,
Her way was all she could see.
She knew her mind and would say so,
And she was only three!

One day her mother said to her,
“It’s time to use the potty!
You’re too big to mess your pants,
And to sass is very naughty!”

“But I don’t want to”, Chelsea sassied,
Forgetting what mother told her.
She crossed her chubby arms and frowned.
Her mother thought to scold her.

She decided she would let it go,
Not wanting to upset her.
She hoped her Chelsea would decide
A potty would feel better.

Later on, Miss Chelsea cried,
Because she had a rash.
Her mother said she should know why,
And threw her diaper in the trash.

“If you want to be a big girl,
And panties, you want to wear,
Sit on the potty for a while.
We can talk more while you’re there.

They talked about their favorite things.
Each was taking turns.
Then all at once, the pee-pee came!
And Chelsea said, “It burns!”

“You’re such a big girl, Chelsea!
You finally have learned how!”
With teary eyes, little Chelsea said,
“I can wear panties now!”
